

Wedding FAQs

What's the maximum capacity for a wedding?

125 guests.

What wedding related events can I have at the Inn?

The Inn can host your rehearsal dinner, ceremony, wedding dinner, reception and breakfast the following day.

Do you host LGBTQIA weddings?

Absolutely. The Inn welcomes all wedding celebrations.

Where do people usually have their ceremonies?

Ceremonies are usually held under the Riverside Pavilion, on the lawn (with or without a tent) or in the Riverside Bar & Cafe.

Where do people usually have their cocktail hours and receptions?

Cocktail hours and receptions are usually held under the Riverside Pavilion, on the lawn under a tent, on the wrap-around porch or in the Riverside Bar & Cafe.

Can I provide my own food?

The award-winning, full service restaurant must provide all food and will happily work with you to ensure the menu honors all dietary restrictions and exceeds expectations.

Can I provide my own alcohol?

The Inn is required by law to provide all alcoholic beverages including beer, wine and cocktails. If you select an open or cash bar, you may choose a personalized selection of beverages.

Can I provide my own wedding cake?

You are welcome to provide your own cake or the Inn can work with a preferred vendor to create your dream cake. Please contact us for competitive pricing.

How many wedding guests can spend the night on the property?

Up to 33 people can stay in the Inn's guest rooms. For any spillover guests, there are 2 hotels within 5 miles away. We can easily arrange shuttles to/from the hotels.

Can wedding guests who did not stay on the property attend breakfast the day after the wedding?

Yes. The Inn can host up to 50 people for breakfast.

Do you have sufficient parking for my wedding?

Yes. With a designated parking lot, easy access to street parking and alliances with local organizations (located within 3 blocks) the Inn can easily accommodate parking for up to 125 guests.

How early can I take pictures on the property?

Photos may be taken as early as 3pm and your photographer will have unlimited access to all the property that you are renting.

Can you provide pricing for common rentals needed for weddings on your property?

Yes. We can provide this competitive pricing upon request.

Can you recommend a wedding officiant?

Yes. We are more than happy to put you in contact with our highly recommended officiants.